

Please do not alter our state's wonderfully effective "Do Not Call" regulations. They are an asset to those who want to have an uninterrupted dinner with their family and to the elderly who are more susceptible to unscrupulous salespeople.